Eastern State To Add 4 To Faculty In September

CPYRGHT

Special to The Courier-Journal

Richmond, Ky., Aug. 12—Eastern Kentucky State College announced Sunday four teachers will join the faculty September 1.

Dr. Waldemar Noll, who has taught at Berea College since 1924 will be professor of physics.

Dr. Charles Warren Van Cleve, a native of Muncie, Ind., joins the political-science department as an assistant professor. He has taught at Oklahoma State University, Thornton Township Junior College, the University of Texas, and has worked in the Central Intelligence Agency.

Henry Pryse will become assistant professor of social science. Pryse has taught at Buckeye High School and has worked in the Bureau of Guidance Service in the State Department of Education.

Kenneth Dorton Tunnell, who has nine years of teaching experience in the Corbin and Williamsburg schools, will be a social-science instructor.
